

DEAN KELLY N.S.

CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

1. INTRODUCTION

This Code of Behaviour was formulated following a number of meetings involving the Principal, staff, parents and Board of Management. This process began in June 2012 and following staff meetings from September to December 2012, the Code is hereby presented to the Board of Management for ratification

Going forward the Code will be an item on the agenda of at least one staff meeting per term. We will use the success criteria (see page 14) to ascertain whether or not the Code is working.

The Code was reviewed in full in September / October / November 2019 to respond to new challenges and acknowledge the schools participation in the PAX initiative. (PAX means – peace, productivity, health, happiness). Also the school's enrolment has increased from 69 pupils in 2010 to 107 pupils in 2019, therefore there are more pupils in the school, meaning that there is less space on the yard for everyone increasing the importance of every pupil understanding the rules of the school.

1.1 OUR VISION

Dean Kelly N.S. is a senior boys schools catering for pupils from 2nd to 6th class. The school has been designated Band 1 DEIS status by the Department of Education. The school strives to promote and model excellent behaviour for its pupils and has high expectations in relation to individual pupil behaviour. The school has a whole school vision based on the PAX good behaviour games for the pupils. In brief it is "I better my world, I better myself".

1.2 OUR AIMS

- 1) To create an atmosphere that encourages good behaviour.
- 2) To set high expectations for good behaviour.
- 3) To create a happy and safe place for teaching and learning.
- 4) To encourage students to take personal responsibility for their behaviour.
- 5) To build positive relationship sand respect among students, parents and staff.
- 6) To ensure the standards are clear, consistent, widely known and understood by students, parents and staff.
- 7) To ensure that pupils see the code works in a fair way.

1.3 RATIONALE

Dean Kelly N.S. deemed it necessary to devise a Code of Behaviour for the following reasons:-

- 1) to ensure our policy is in compliance with the legal requirements and the good practice standards as set out in "Developing a Code of Behaviour Guidelines for Schools 2008".
- 2) It is a requirement under DES Circular 20/90 on School Discipline.

- 3) A change in the types of undesirable / challenging behaviour which pupils were presenting with and staff felt these behaviours were a direct result of increased stress and pressure in the family home due to lack of employment, poor health, low self-esteem and poverty and lack of housing.

1.4 RELATIONSHIP TO THE CHARACTERISTIC SPIRIT / ETHOS OF THE SCHOOL

The Code of Behaviour at Dean Kelly N.S. is based on the principle of equal respect for both children and their families and for the staff of the school, both teaching and non-teaching as outlined in our school mission statement. The purpose of this Policy is to promote positive behaviour and to allow our school to function in an orderly and harmonious way, in line with our ethos as a Catholic school. Children will be made aware of the code at a level appropriate to their age.

The purpose of this Code is to provide practical guidance for teachers, parents, pupils and other relevant persons on how we ensure an orderly climate for learning in our school

3.1.2 Dean Kelly N.S. routines for behaving well

Based on our golden rules, we have come up with a more specific set of guidelines so that it makes it easier for all children to behave well. The guidelines below should be seen as the basic minimum expectation we have for behaving well on a daily basis. They will be communicated to the boys through assembly, posters around the school and regular reminders from the class teacher (incidentally and through SPHE lessons).

Morning Routine:

- School gates open at 8.40 a.m.
- Children are walked to the breakfast club with a teacher and a member of the breakfast club staff.
- Children not having breakfast line up / sit on bench.
- At 8.50 a.m. teacher opens back door and children to out to play. 2nd and 3rd play on bottom yard.
- 9.00 school bell rings.

Afternoon Routine:

- School closes at 2.40 p.m.
- Children who go to homework club are collected at each class by teacher and walked to homework club.
- Children who take a bus are collected at each class and supervised in another classroom until the bus arrives.
- All other children are walked to front gate by their own class teacher.

Please note these routines and procedures have changed in line with Covid-19 recommendations

Walking:

Inside the school is a walking zone at all times. At 9.00 a.m. and 2.40 p.m. pupils are asked to walk too.

Clothing for school:

Full school uniform to be worn daily – grey trousers, pale blue shirt, navy jumper, silver/navy striped tie. Routine uniform checks will also occur.

Clothing for PE:

P.E. uniform, which consists of a navy tracksuit bottoms, navy top and a pale blue polo shirt may be worn on the day(s) your child has P.E.

Never Leave the School

Children should never leave school or their classroom without permission from teaching staff.

Language:

Bad language (curses and swear words) or derogatory, racist, homophobic or sexist language should never be used in any language.

Expensive toys:

Mobile telephones, PSP's, game boys and other small electronic toys should be left at home as they can get lost or damaged, as well as creating difficulties at break time.

Road safety – Bus Pick-Up

Boys should line up in an orderly fashion in the designated classroom. When the bus arrives the teacher walks out with the children to the bus.

Class Rules

Class rules are set in each class by the teacher and the class and are based upon our school wide golden rules and our code of behaviour and which set a positive atmosphere for learning. These include a procedure for leaving your seat, going to the bathroom, getting the teachers attention, keeping the room tidy and safe for everyone, changing tasks and lining up and generally looking out for one another.

PAX good behaviour game is used by all teachers and staff in Dean Kelly and all children have become accustomed to using PAX in school.

A clear system of acknowledging and rewarding good behaviour and sanctions for misbehaviour will operate in each class.

Our Yard Rules:

- Respect all yard toys / equipment and hand them back when finished.
- You have no permission to leave the yard – you must ask a teacher first.
- When the bell rings we FREEZE, LINE UP AND SHOW PAX. Pupils will be taught about the importance of personal space in the line.
- Pupils should line up at the appropriate clearly marked lines on the yard for their class.
- If you get an injury make sure you tell the teacher on duty
- If you are not happy it is vitally important to tell the teacher on duty so that they can help to resolve the problem quickly.

- If you run into someone else, check that they are okay and tell them you are sorry and that it was an accident.
- If you see rough play, ask them to stop and tell a teacher.
- If anyone is not following our rules in the yard they may be asked to do a timeout at the designated timeout bench in the yard.
- If you have ideas to make yard time better, tell the teachers or principal.

School related activities: The code of behaviour applies to all out of school activities, including extracurricular activities, school outings and tours.

3.2. Dealing with Day-to-day Behaviour Issues

Pupils frequently bring behaviour issues to teachers for resolution when they themselves are unable to resolve them. Teachers encourage, support and show pupils how they may be able to resolve these issues. In this way, pupils build up the skills necessary for the resolution of issues in later life. Children should be enabled to resolve conflicts with the aid of a teacher.

When the teacher judges it necessary, (s)he will become involved and help resolve a behaviour issue. The vast majority of issues will be resolved at this point. This may happen with or without consulting the parent, or principal, or other designated senior member of staff.

Parents are kept informed, as appropriate about the resolution of behaviour issues and the teacher decides when this is appropriate, or responds to parents' queries at any time. Teachers act on the principle that it is better for parents to be aware than not aware of behaviour issues which arise. The principal may intervene informally in the resolution of minor issues, as appropriate.

Communication with parents about behaviour

Good communication between teachers and parents is essential for optimal pupil progress. Equally we encourage parents to talk to staff about their concerns. The homework journal or a note can be useful. For more detailed and sensitive discussions, it is best to arrange a meeting with the class teacher. This means that both parties can sit down and discuss issues confidentially and in comfort.

Bullying

In dealing with any incidence of bullying behaviour, teachers have regard to the school's Anti Bullying Policy, which is given to parents in September of each school year. Bullying is defined as repeated aggressions (verbal, psychological or physical) conducted by an individual or group against others. Isolated incidents of aggressive behaviour (which of course are not condoned) are not regarded as bullying. But when the behaviour is systematic and ongoing, it is bullying. The Department of Education and Science has identified a number of different types of bullying and the school accepts this definition of what constitutes bullying. It includes: physical aggression, intimidation, isolation, name-calling, and 'slagging', unwarranted demands for things and damage to property.

Children with Special Educational Needs (SEN)

We understand that children with special educational needs may sometimes find managing their behaviour to be a struggle for them. We are keenly aware that certain children will need a very specific style of behaviour management, which is suited to their own individual needs. In these instances we will work closely with the child's parents and the child himself to allow the child to take ownership over their own behaviour. We have in the past and will continue to do so in the future, work with Barnardos Services in relation to teaching children anger management and behavioural management skills. We will refer to BESD (Behavioural Emotional and Social Difficulties) Continuum of Support from NEPS in all cases of behavioural management in special needs children.

Keeping records:

It is important for staff to keep a record of poor behaviour on Aladdin so that they can be confident of their accuracy when discussing the matter with parents and so that patterns in behaviour can be noted. It is the policy of the school that parents are informed of persistent minor misdemeanours and major misdemeanours sooner rather than later. Underlying this reporting should be an ongoing positive two way relationship between the parents and the school that fosters good communication and maintains high levels of parental involvement in the interests of the child. Consistency is achieved through clear adherence to this policy and regular discussion at staff meetings.

The following records are kept:

1) Aladdin

Incidences of behaviour will be written into Aladdin by class teachers and SNAs on a daily basis. This will allow staff to monitor behaviour and to monitor emerging patterns of behaviour. Serious incidents should be reported to the principal, or in her absence, the deputy principal.

2) Book of Brilliant Behaviour

Examples of excellent behaviour will be recorded by all staff in this book approximately five times a year, and at least once per term.

Success Criteria

How will we know if the Code is working?

To work effectively it is vital that:-

- School rules are clear, simple and fair.
- Children, parents / guardians, teachers are clear on acceptable and unacceptable behaviour
- There is unity and co-operation
- Everyone has the same high standards
- School rules are implemented
- The Board of Management continues to be actively involved in the promotion, implementation and review of the Code of Behaviour.
- Teachers are keeping factual records of incidents of poor / disruptive behaviour in their classes
- Teachers are recording incidents of misbehaviour and any other observations of note in relation to the children at playtime on Aladdin.

- Serious incidents or issues are recorded in the pupils files
- Behaviour is noted in parent / teacher meetings and in end of year pupil reports
- Parents are informing the school about their children's absences.

SUSPENSION/EXPULSION (APPENDIX TO CODE OF BEHAVIOUR)

Chapters 10, 11 and 12 of Developing Codes of Behaviour: Guidelines for Schools deal with the issues of suspension and expulsion from primary schools, including the legal and procedural requirements. Schools are advised that in drawing up or reviewing their Codes of Behaviour, they should follow the advice set out in these Guidelines. The Guidelines acknowledge a child's right to education, but also the occasional need for schools to suspend or expel pupils where serious misbehaviour occurs. Schools are reminded that decisions to suspend (for a total of 20 days or more in the current school year) or expel are open to appeal (under Section 29 of the Education Act 1998) and may be subject to judicial review by the High Court.

A school should ensure that it has a policy and procedures around the use of suspension and expulsion, and these should be widely communicated.

Fair Procedures (see Chapter 10 of the Guidelines)

In the investigation of alleged misbehaviour, and in decision making around what, if any sanction should be imposed, it should be clear that fair procedures are adopted. Fair procedures have two essential parts:

- The right to be heard; and
- The right to impartiality.

The principles of fair procedure always apply, but the degree of formality required will depend on the gravity of the alleged misbehaviour and the seriousness of the possible sanction. Procedures must be fair, and be seen to be fair. The need for confidentiality and timeliness in dealing with suspension and expulsion are also set out.

Suspension (See Chapter 11 of the Guidelines)

The board of management of a school has the authority to suspend. Where this authority is delegated to the principal it should be done formally and in writing. Suspension should be a proportionate response to the behaviour that is causing concern. Normally other interventions will have been tried before suspension and the school staff should have reviewed why these interventions have not worked. However, a single incident of misconduct may be grounds for suspension.

A decision to suspend a student requires that:

- The student and parents are informed of the complaint; and
- Parents and students are given an opportunity to respond.

A student should not be suspended for more than three days, except in exceptional circumstances, where the principal considers that it is warranted to achieve a particular objective. Where a suspension longer than three days is being proposed by the principal, the matter should be referred to the board. A board of management may wish to authorise the Principal, with the approval of the chairperson of the board, to impose a suspension of up to five days in circumstances where a meeting of the board cannot be convened in a timely fashion, subject to the guidance concerning such suspensions. The board should normally place a ceiling of 10 days on any one period of suspension imposed by it. Pupils should not be suspended for an indefinite period.

Schools should notify the parents and the student of decisions to suspend in writing. When the suspension ends, a plan should be made to reintegrate the student into the class, and pupils should be given the opportunity and support for a fresh start.

Expulsion (See Chapter 12 of the Guidelines)

The board of management of a school has the authority to expel a student. As a matter of best practice, this authority should not be delegated. Expulsion should be proportionate to the student's behaviour and should only be invoked in extreme cases of unacceptable behaviour. The school should have taken significant steps to address the misbehaviour, and be satisfied that they have exhausted all possibilities for changing the student's behaviour. There may exceptional circumstances where a board forms the opinion that the student should be expelled for a first offence, e.g. actual violence or physical assault.

Decisions to expel should follow fair procedures including:

1. A detailed investigation carried out under the direction of the principal.
2. A recommendation to the board of management by the principal.
3. Consideration by the board of management of the principal's recommendation; and the holding of a hearing.
4. Board of management deliberations and actions following the hearing, including informing the Education Welfare Board of its opinion. (the student cannot be expelled before the passage of 20 days from the date that the NEWB receives this written notification)
5. Consultations arranged by the Educational Welfare Officer.
6. Confirmation of the decision to expel.

Decisions to expel are subject to appeal under Section 29 of the Education Act.

Additional procedures in line with the ‘ Reopening our schools, The roadmap for the full return to school’(July 2020 DES) in response to Covid-19 pandemic.

The Code of Behaviour was reviewed and updated in line with the School COVID-19 environment. This process involved staff and parental consultation.

Parents/ Guardian:

- Be familiar with the Dean Kelly COVID -19 Response plan uploaded on the school website which outlines all safety procedures and guidelines in order to minimise the risk of introduction of COVID -19 into the school community and manage the risk of spread if introduced.
- Be familiar with HSE guidelines and all recent and updated publications which outline the symptoms of COVID -19 and recommendations on when to keep a child home from school.
- Be aware that the school will be extra cautious when a child presents as unwell in school and be contactable at all times. Parents must be understanding that often we will ask you to take your child home to ensure we are adhering to all recommendations and ensuring safety of all. We would remind parents that seeking advice from a GP is always the best course of action when your child is sent home or presents as unwell at home.
- Ensure school always has an up to date contact number for you at all times as well as an up to date emergency contact number.
- Be aware that the school cannot ever comment on individual cases or outbreaks in order to protect the privacy and confidentiality of those involved.
- Be aware that the HSE will take on the role of communicating with parents should a positive case arise within the school community.

Teachers/ Staff:

- Continue to review the school Risk Assessment on a regular basis and follow themes of
 - A balanced approach
 - Apply commons sense
 - Create awareness
 - Do everything practical to avoid introduction of Covid-19 to the school
 - Stay at home if unwell
 - Keep doing these measure to keep us all safe
- The school will continue to work with the HSE ensuring all necessary hygiene, health and safety protocols are in place at the school for the prevention and containment of COVID-19.

Procedures for responding to inappropriate behaviour in relation to COVID-19 and new school routines surrounding this

- All new school routines related to COVID-19 and referencing the School Response Plan (Arrival, dismissal, yard, personal hygiene, pod system in classrooms, social distancing in corridors, cleaning schedules, hand washing schedules, bathroom use) must be adhered to at all times and any breach of these rules will be considered a major misdemeanour.

- STEPS procedures will be used when dealing with any breach of Covid-19 school rules and policies and when necessary the school may skip to STEP 4 and 5 (Meeting with parents) when safety of pupils and others are at risk.

The STEPS letter for parents now includes a reference to breach of COVID-19 guidelines and procedures.
